v           | C stop | -        | F stop | -        |
Intro  I'm lost and found as I, lay my head I'm a,
       Am stop  | -          | G stop   | -  |
        thousand miles from the home, we've made I,
       C stop      | -        | F stop     | -         |
        heard your words as the, call came through from that,
       Am stop  | -        | G stop   | -
        house of cards that I share, with you.
```
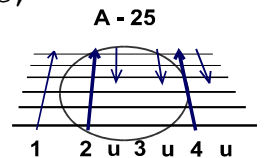

```
^        | C           | C           | F           | F
1.    And I believe we both decide to, take a stand or run and hide
            | Am       | Am          | G | G
       and if you, disagree, then I'm the fool
            | C        | C           | F       | F
       and I've always have to much to say and, lucidly I found my way
            | Am       | Am          | G | G
       but it's served me well, cause I found you.

2.    And I won't let go of the heart I know
        | F       ^      | F    ^       | Am       | Am
       I see your smile in an open door as you wait for me,
           | G | G
       and my return.
          | C       ^     | C       ^
       With my feet here on this foreign soil
        | F     ^        | F      ^      | Am       | Am
       you know I'd walk those thousand miles so you and I,
           | G | G                         |
       we could be,    oh be together now.

v      | C stop| -       | F stop | -
     And oh my  love am I, loud  enough
        | Am stop   | -      | G stop | -
     can you, hear me where you are.
       | C stop| -       | F stop | -
     And oh my  love am I, loud  enough
        | Am stop   | -      | G stop | -
     can you, hear me where you are.
